Discover Purpose: The Adventure of You WEEK 1 | PART 2

Where do you get your identity from?

(Your career, your children, a label from childhood, etc.)

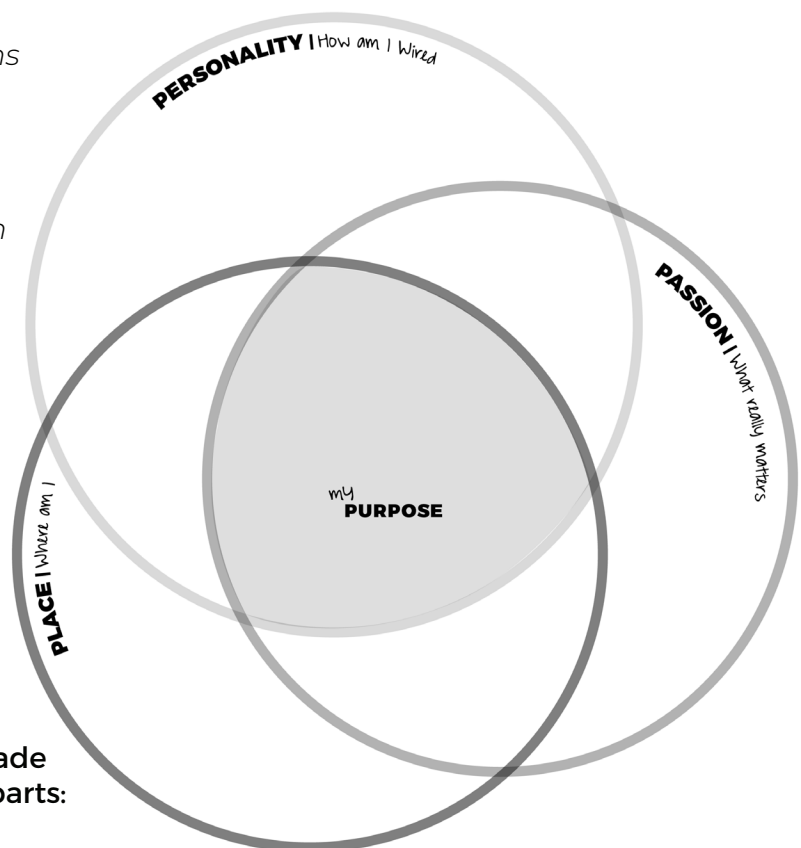

You are a _____ creation!

2 Corinthians 5:17

This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

Matthew 3:16-17

After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy."

Your purpose is made up of these three parts:

Ephesians 1:3-14

³All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. ⁴Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. ⁵God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. ⁶So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son. ⁷He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. ⁸He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding. ⁹God has now revealed to us his mysterious will regarding Christ—which is to fulfill his own good plan. ¹⁰And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. ¹¹Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan. ¹²God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God. ¹³And now you Gentiles have also heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago. ¹⁴The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us the inheritance he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify him.

2 Corinthians 5:17 | You are a new person

John 1:12 | You are a child of God

Genesis 1:27 | You are made in God's image

Isaiah 43:4 | You are precious to God

Reread the verses from Ephesians 1 above. Underline what it says about you when you put your faith in Christ. The first few have been done for you. Which two did you need to hear most? List them below.

Create a breath prayer that you can pray to own this truth. Create a prayer card and post it somewhere you will see it often. Finally, go to page 1 and add your name, and your top 2 truths to your purpose statement.

 - How does knowing this help me make a difference?
3. Fill in your name and two identity truths to your purpose statement at the front of the workbook.

When we _____ to grow in his love and share his love, we help to accomplish God's plan and purpose for the world.

This is how we begin to live out our purpose.

Groups: Three Things You Should Know About Groups

1. Our Groups are as varied as we are.

Group Leaders are free to use their gifts and interests to determine when and where their Group meets and what they meet about. This could be anything from playing soccer, enjoying coffee, or studying the Bible together.

2. We have three semesters every year.

Life flows in seasons, and we want to make it easy for you to be in the right Group for you in each season. This is why we have new Groups that start and stop three times a year in what we refer to as “semesters.” Our Group semesters are winter/spring (January-April), summer (June-July), and fall (September-December).

3. You can lead a Group.

We believe everyone has areas of strength and gifting that can benefit others, and leading a Group is a great way to make meaningful connections. You can do what you love and allow God to use it for his purposes. The first step toward becoming a Group Leader is to attend the Group Leader Training offered every fourth Sunday of the month. The training is offered throughout the year to give you an overview of how simple it is to start a Group. You'll discover that it's easier than you think.

NEXT STEPS:

To take your first steps toward becoming a part of the DreamTeam:

1. Complete the place section of your purpose statement.
2. Team Meeting—Today!
Attend a team meeting today in the ministry area of your choice to learn how to get involved.
3. Application
Complete the application (if needed) for your ministry area and submit it to a ministry leader during your orientation session.
4. Conversation
Participate in a one-on-one conversation with one of our team members within the first few weeks of serving to make a personal connection to the team.
5. Start Serving
Join a DreamTeam to continue discovering your purpose and the dream God has put in you.
6. Invite
Invite others on the journey to see how God has a purpose for their life that makes an eternal difference. You can do that through extending invites to the weekend service, to a Group, or to GrowthTrack.

“It's your turn to step in and use the personality God has given you, the place God has you, and the passion and dreams he has placed in your heart to grow his family and to make a difference, for today and all eternity.”

DISC PERSONALITY OVERVIEWS

D: DOMINANCE

Direct and decisive; they are risk takers and problem solvers. They are more concerned with completing tasks and winning than they are with gaining approval from people. Though the internal drive tends to make them insensitive to those around them, “D”s are not afraid to challenge the status quo, and they thrive when it comes to developing new things. They need discipline to excel, and they respond to direct confrontation. The greatest fear of a “D” is to be taken advantage of, and even despite their possible weaknesses – which include an aversion to routine, a tendency to overstep authority, an argumentative nature, and a habit of taking on too much – they place a high value on time and use their innovative thinking to accomplish difficult tasks and conquer challenges.

D/I Curious conclusers who place emphasis on the bottom line and work hard to reach their goals. They are more determined than they are inspirational, yet their high expectations and standards for themselves and those around them typically cause them to make quite an impact, motivating others to follow them. They have an array of interests and can become distracted by taking on too many projects. They often need to focus, prioritize, and simply slow down. Because “D/I”s thrive on activity and forward motion, they like to accomplish tasks through a large number of people. Joshua (JOSHUA 1), Noah (GENESIS 6-9), Sarah (GENESIS 16, 1 PETER 3:6)

D/S Achievers with an ability to persevere. They are more active than passive, but they possess a kind of calm sensitivity and steadiness that makes them good leaders. They seem to be people-oriented but can easily be dominant and decisive when it comes to tasks and project planning. They strive to accomplish goals with fierce determination that comes from strong internal drive, but they could benefit from contemplative and conservative thinking as well as spending more time focusing on relationships. Daniel (DANIEL 1-6), Job (JOB 1:5, JAMES 5:11), Martha (LUKE 10:38-42)

D/C Challengers that can either be determined students or defiant critics. Being in charge is important to them, yet they care little about what others think as long as they get the job done. They have a great deal of foresight and examine every avenue to find the best solution. They prefer to work alone. Though they fear failure and the lack of influence, they are motivated by challenges and can often be excellent administrators. They can benefit from learning to relax and paying more attention to people. Malachi (MALACHI 4), Nathan (2 SAMUEL 12:1-13), Nahum (NAHUM 1-3)

I: INFLUENCER

Inspiring and impressive. Enthusiastic, optimistic, impulsive, and emotional – they tend to be creative problem solvers and excellent encouragers. They often have a large number of friends, but they can become more concerned with approval and popularity than with getting results. An “I”s greatest fear is rejection, but they thrive when it comes to motivating others. Their positive sense of humor helps them negotiate conflicts. Though they can be inattentive to details and poor listeners, they can be great peacemakers and effective teammates when they control their feelings and minimize their urge to entertain and be the center of attention. They value lots of human touch and connection.

I/D Persuaders who are outgoing and energetic. They enjoy large groups and use their power of influence to attain respect and convince people to follow their lead. Sometimes they can be viewed as fidgety and nervous, but it comes from their need to be a part of challenges that have variety, freedom, and mobility. “I/D”s could benefit from learning to look before they leap and spending more time being studious and still. They make inspiring leaders and know how to get results from and through people. John the Baptist (LUKE 3), Peter (MATTHEW 16 AND 26, ACTS 3), Rebekah (GENESIS 24)

I/S Influential counselors who love people, and it's no surprise that people love them. They live to please and serve, and they tend to be good listeners. Looking good and encouraging others is important to them, as is following through and being obedient. They often lack in the area of organization and can be more concerned with the people involved than they are with the task at hand. However, they can be center stage or behind the scenes with equal effectiveness, and they shine when it comes to influencing and helping others. Barnabas (ACTS 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 KINGS 19, 2 KINGS 2-3), Nicodemus (JOHN 3, 7, 19)

I/C Inspiring yet cautious assessors who are excellent communicators through the combination of concerned awareness and appreciation of people. They excel in determining ways to improve production. They tend to be impatient and critical, and they can also be overly persuasive and too consumed by the desire to win. "I/C"s like to work inside the box, and they could benefit from trying new things and caring less about what others think. This personality type often possesses a gift for teaching; they are generally dependable when it comes to paying attention to details and getting the job done. Miriam (EXODUS 15-21), Ezra (EZRA 7-8), Shunammite Woman (2 KINGS 4:8-37)

S: STEADINESS

Steady and more reserved. They do not like change, and they thrive in secure, non-threatening environments. They are often friendly and understanding as well as good listeners and loyal workers who are happy doing the same job consistently. With an incredible ability to forgive, reliable and dependable "S"s tend to make the best friends. Their greatest fear, however, is loss of security, and their possible weaknesses naturally include not only resistance to change, but also difficulty adjusting to it. They can also be too sensitive to criticism and unable to establish priorities. In order to avoid being taken advantage of, "S"s need to be stronger and learn how to say "no." They also like to avoid the limelight, but when given an opportunity to genuinely help others, they will gladly rise to the occasion. They feel most valued when they have truly helped someone.

S/D Quiet leaders who can be counted on to get the job done. They perform better in small groups and do not enjoy speaking in front of crowds. Though they can be soft- and hard-hearted at the same time, they enjoy close relationships with people, being careful not to dominate them. Challenges motivate them, especially ones that allow them to take a systematic approach. "S/D"s tend to be determined, persevering through time and struggles. They benefit from encouragement and positive relationships. Martha (LUKE 10:38-42), Job (JOB 1:5, JAMES 5:11)

S/I Inspirational counselors who exhibit warmth and sensitivity. Tolerant and forgiving, they have many friends because they accept and represent others well. Their social nature and desire to be likable and flexible make them inclined to be overly tolerant and non-confrontational. "S/I"s will benefit from being more task-oriented and paying more attention to detail. Kind and considerate, they include others and inspire people to follow them. Words of affirmation go a long way with this personality type, and with the right motivation, they can be excellent team players. Mary Magdalene (LUKE 7:36-47), Barnabas (ACTS 4, 9, 11-15), Elisha (1 KINGS 19, 2 KINGS 2-13)

S/C Diplomatic and steady, as well as detail-oriented. Stable and contemplative, they like to weigh the evidence and discover the facts to come to a logical conclusion. More deliberate, they prefer to take their time, especially when the decision involves others. Possible weaknesses include being highly sensitive and unable to handle criticism, and they also need to be aware of the way they treat others. Operating best in precise and cause-worthy projects, the "S/C" can be a peacemaker; this makes them a loyal team member and friend. Moses (EXODUS 3, 4, 20, 32), John (JOHN 19:26-27)

C: CONSCIENTIOUSNESS

Compliant and analytical. Careful and logical lines of thinking drive them forward, and accuracy is a top priority. They hold high standards and value systematic approaches to problem solving. Though they thrive when given opportunities to find solutions, they tend to ignore the feelings of others and can often be critical and downright crabby. Verbalizing feelings is difficult for them, but when they are not bogged down in details and have clear-cut boundaries, they can be big assets to the team by providing calculated “reality checks.” The “C”’s biggest fear is criticism, and their need for perfection is often a weakness, as is their tendency to give in when in the midst of an argument. However, they are thorough in all activities and can bring a conscientious, even-tempered element to the team that will provide solid grounding. They value being correct.

C/I Attentive to the details. They tend to impress others by doing things right and stabilizing situations. Not considered aggressive or pushy, they enjoy both large and small crowds. Though they work well with people, they are sometimes too sensitive to what others think about them and their work. They could benefit from being more assertive and self-motivated. Often excellent judges of character, they easily trust those who meet their standards. They are moved by genuine and enthusiastic approval as well as concise and logical explanations. Miriam (EXODUS 15:21, NUMBERS 12:1-15), Ezra (EZRA 7, 8)

C/S Systematic and stable. They tend to do one thing at a time—and do it right. Reserved and cautious, they would rather work behind the scenes to stay on track; however, they seldom take risks or try new things and naturally dislike sudden changes in their environments. Precisionists to the letter, they painstakingly require accuracy and fear criticism, which they equate with failure. Diligent workers, their motivation comes from serving others. Esther (ESTHER 4), Zechariah (LUKE 1), Joseph (MATTHEW 1:1-23)

C/D Cautious and determined designers who are consistently task-oriented and very aware of problems. Sometimes viewed as insensitive, they do care about individual people but have a difficult time showing it. They often feel they are the only ones who can do the job the way it needs to be done, but because of their administrative skills, they are able to bring plans for change and improvements to fruition. “C/D”’s have a tendency to be serious and could benefit from being more optimistic and enthusiastic. Despite their natural drive to achieve, they should concentrate on developing healthy relationships and simply loving people. Bezalel (EXODUS 35:30-36: 8, 37:1-9), Jochebed (EXODUS 1:22-2:4), Jethro (EXODUS 2:18)
