The Promise: Celebrating the gift of God's Son.

Luke 1:26–38; Matthew 1:18–25 NIrV

DAY 1

Peace in the Storm

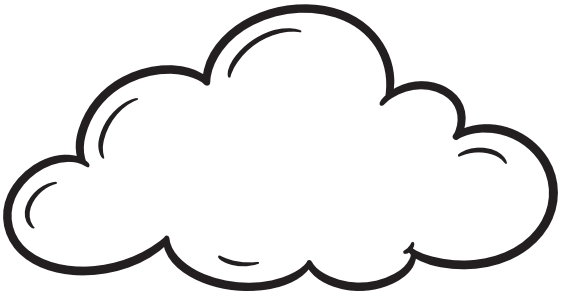

Read John 14:17 NIrV

Have you ever felt nervous about a test, a game, or trying something new? When we worry, it can feel like a storm is happening inside our hearts.

Jesus came to bring peace. Peace is not the same as having a perfect day. Peace is knowing that God is with you no matter what happens.

Mary and Joseph had many questions when they learned God's plan for them. But they trusted God, and He helped them.

The next time you feel worried, stop and remember that Jesus is with you. He can help calm your heart and remind you that you are never alone.

Inside the cloud, write or draw something that helps you remember God is with you when you feel worried.

DAY 2

Trade Your Worries

Read Philippians 4:6 NIrV

Imagine carrying a backpack filled with heavy rocks all day long. It would get tiring fast!

Worries can feel like those heavy rocks. Maybe you worry about school, friends, sports, or something happening at home.

God does not want you to carry those worries by yourself. He wants you to talk to Him about them. When you pray, you can tell God exactly what is on your mind.

Jesus came to bring peace. When we give our worries to Him, He helps lighten the load. He reminds us that He is strong enough to handle what we cannot.

Write one worry on a small piece of paper. Then flip it over and write, "Jesus brings peace." Keep it where you can see it today.

DAY 3

Peace Pause

Read Psalm 46:10 NIrV

Life can get noisy. There are games to play, homework to finish, and places to go. Sometimes we get so busy that we forget to slow down.

God wants us to spend time with Him. When we stop and spend time with God, we can remember that He is with us and in control.

You do not have to have all the answers. Mary and Joseph did not understand everything God was doing. But they trusted Him anyway.

When you feel confused or overwhelmed, take a peace pause. Be quiet for a moment. Talk to God. Remember that He loves you and is taking care of you.

Snow Globe Pause:

Pretend your mind is a snow globe. Shake your hands and wiggle around for five seconds. Then stop and sit quietly like the snow settling to the bottom. As you become still, ask God to fill your heart with His peace.

DAY 4

Peace to Share

Read Colossians 3:15 NIrV

When someone smiles at you, it often makes you want to smile back. Peace can spread in a similar way.

Jesus brings peace to our hearts so we can share it with others. When we are patient, kind, and forgiving, we help people experience God's love.

You may not be able to control everything around you. But you can choose to respond with the peace Jesus gives.

This week, ask God to help you be a peacemaker at home, at school, and with your friends.

Peacemaker Challenge: Think of one person who needs encouragement today. Write them a note, share a kind word, or do something helpful for them.

Prayer:

Dear God, thank You for sending Jesus to bring peace. When I feel worried or afraid, help me trust You. Fill my heart with Your peace and help me share it with others. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Jesus brings peace.
